

The dedicated video editor your content actually needs.

*On your team full-time, vetted through five gates. Starting at $11.75/hr.

Every video is costing you.

Tomorrow

Your best client's video is due tomorrow.
The freelancer you found on Facebook
just stopped replying.

$200/video

Edit it yourself? You draw $80K a year, about $40 an hour. Five hours an edit is $200 of your time, every video.

$30K/yr

Two to five videos a week, edited by you, is a full workweek a month. Your time is the priciest editor you will hire.

Not a freelancer. Not an editing service. A dedicated editor on your team.

Flylisted is a real estate marketing company. Video was the product.

Freelance Marketplaces

Cheap by the hour. Ghosting, late drafts, and a new editor every month who never learned our style.

US In-House

Reliable, but around $100K a year fully loaded. Impossible to justify at our stage.

Managed Agencies

They took the margin, the editor took 50% at best. No stability, no one dedicated to us.

So I built the system myself. It took Flylisted to seven figures across six states. Staffify staffs editors the same way.
