

The dedicated video editor your content actually needs.

*Full-time and vetted. Five gates of screening. Starting at $10/hr.

The footage is piling up. And it has a price.

Weeks

Raw footage sits for weeks. The shoot was the easy part. The edit is where it stalls.

10-15 hrs/wk

Your time or your marketer's, lost to timelines, renders, and revision rounds.

Roulette

Freelancers ghost, miss deadlines, and drift off-brand. You re-explain your style every time.

You don't need another freelancer. You need a dedicated editor.

Flylisted is a real estate marketing company. Video was the product.

01 Freelance Marketplaces

Cheap by the hour. Ghosting, late drafts, and a new editor every month who never learned our style.

02 US In-House

Reliable, but around $100K a year fully loaded. Impossible to justify at our stage.

03 Managed Agencies

They took the margin, the editor took 50% at best. No stability, no one dedicated to us.

So I built the system myself. It took Flylisted to seven figures across six states. Staffify staffs editors the same way.
